

Instructions: Using standard copyediting marks, correct the mistakes in the sentences below. The marks should be above the sentences. There may be more than one mistake per sentence.

1. Trump said that the economic problems will be fixed by 12 p.m. on Feb. 13.
2. Indiana University employs over 2000 faculty members.
3. The president and CEO of Walmart are Sarah Foster.
4. Wendy's provides a variety of food items everyday.
5. Each of the students are responsible for homework.
6. Chancellor Wallace says we need to e-mail questions first.
7. The SGA held it's weekly meeting in Crestview Hall, rm. 117.
8. One hundred thousand dollars were the winning bid for the car.
9. A grown up would never use the "N-word" in this situation.
10. She enjoys eating, swimming and books.