

Instructions: Using standard copyediting marks, correct the mistakes in the sentences below. The marks should be above the sentences. There may be more than one mistake per sentence.

1. He drives home everyday to Four West Eleventh Avenue.
2. He said that journalism is the best major.
3. Ron Alman, former newspaper advisor, loves Bananas Foster.
4. His bail was reduced to twenty thousand dollars.
5. Measles spread quickly in kintergarden.
6. The rate of dropouts are rising.
7. The most unique t-shirt won a prize
8. He feels okay about his trip to Fort Wayne, Ind.
9. Smith said "It was a grey and dreary night."
10. He earned two "A" and three "b".